

Caution:

The following Carded Medical Record(s) reflect(s) one or more differences in the spelling of the soldier's name, a variation in his company, or other anomalies that warrant your attention.

The card(s) include enough consistencies with respect to his name, rank, company, regiment, or the card's physical proximity to another in the file to suggest that they may be relevant to your research.

But while we included them for that reason, we draw your attention to the anomalies and encourage you to make your own judgement as to whether each card necessarily refers to the soldier of your interest.
